Worthy of the consideration of Kon-tucklans.

A mighty struggle has been going on in the Congress of the nation about Kansas Territory The Southern or pro-slavery party in Kansas, have, from the first, been a law-abiding and a constitutional party. They have constantly aimed to preserve the constitutional rights of all the emigrants. While they are Southern men in their feelings, they are Democratic in all their proclivities; and they have therefore been willing at all times that a majority should rule. But it has not been so with the Northern or Abolition party. Those who compose that party have for months been in a state of rebellion against the constitution of the United States, and have been treasonably engaged in resisting the authority of the general government. They carried their lawless principles to such an extent, that they called a revolutionary convention, formed a State constitution, elected their governor and other State officers, and insolently petitioned Congress for admission into the Union as a State under this revolutionary constitution.

We suppose that no one acquainted with the facts in the premises, will pretend to contend that the representatives of the hogus convention in Kansus were legally elected. Yet when applic tion is made to the Honse of Representatives of the United States, (a majority of that body being composed of Black Republicans and Know-Nothings,) they passed a bill to admit Kansas with that constitution, although it was made by a convention which could not in any sense be considered the representatives of the people of Kansas.

When we enquire for a reason for this strange acti n upon the part of the House of Representatives of the American Congress, we find it in the fact that the House is ruled by abolitionists and Know-Nothings.

But the constitution of the bogus Kansas convention met with a different fate in the Senate o' the United States. That body being strongly Demogratic, by a vote of more than two to one reprojected the claims of the bogus convention in Kapens. We are all forced to admit that the action of the United States Senate in the premises is each just and conservative, is a measure of peace and looks to the interests of the whole take place in this State next Monday, will defavorof the acuon of the House of Representatives. has lost largely in the past twelve months, and accordingly fell under their sore displeasure;

We wish the reader to look at one fact as developed in the history of this whole matter. We ask the voters of Kentucky why, under the circumstances, they cannot vote for the nominees of the Democratic party? Would the election of Mr. Fillmore, and the triumph of the Know Nothing party, secure any such results?

Suppose it were possible to elect him? And suppose it were possible to accomplish what the Black Republican and Know Nothing parties desire? That is, that the Senate and House of Representatives should become anti-Democratic, cannot any one see that it would be disastrous to the best interests of the South?

Let us suppose that the Presidential office, the Senate, and the House of Representatives were all controlled by Know Nothings, would the institution of slavery be safe in their hands? We cannot believe it, and for the following reasons: 1st. The Know Nothings in the House of Representatives from the non-slaveholding States voted in favor of receiving the constitution made

We believe that, as Northern Know Nothings have thus acted in all the lustances referred to. they would continue to act in all the departments of our government under their control. That is, they would act against the South, and in favor of the North.

Wh this canvass began, we heard the hypocritical prating of certain candidates against making a party race for certain offices, and knowing these nen to belong to that party, who, so soon as they had the numerical strength in this place, did not fail to make a party race for all offices, great and small. I recorded the proceedings of the evenings in the spring of 1855, when "Carcollton Council' nominated candidates for Jus-tice of the Peace, Police Judge, Marshal, and Town Trustees. Their candidate for Circuit Judge in the Eighth District, and all their candidates for county offices, save one, are members of that Council. Every Council in the county, and all over the land, dld the same thing, as their records will show. Quite recently we did them a still greater disleasure. Onr Judicial District they know to be mocratic, and to succeed they sent ont candidates for Circuit Judge and county offices, who were to cry aloud and spare not against making a party race for such offices, at the same time declaring that they are the candidates of no par-ty, while we have their pretentions to be feigned; that they belonged to the party above referred to, who would boldly thrust members of their party into all the offices if they could. Feeling that we were of full age, and free-born, we re-solved to say a word or two about the obliquities of the course which they had pursued and were pursulng, and we accordingly wrote for the Louisville Times two articles, headed "Political Deception Exposed, " and "Political Deception er on." in which we tore away the covering they had drawn over their corruption, and exposed it n all its hideousness This, to them, we were fully aware, was an unkind cut, for they had no means of success but those to which they had resorted. The party could not bear the candidates into office except by disguising their political character and identity. The candidates were relied upon to bear the party of triumphant in the approaching contest, and hence we struck them on a tender spot. One thing we know, and that is, their books and records will fully confirm all that we have asserted. Soon after our first article mentioned above made its appearance, we were accused of being its anthor, and inverted blessings were freely showered upon our head. We scorned to lie, and the means to which some of them have resorted to mortify us and would our feelings would shame a savage. We will not charge this upon the party, generally, at this place. We cannot believe that all of them would stoop to anything so mean, low, and contemptible: but certain unprincipled men among them, hearing of the deeds of arson and murder committed at Louisville, and seen how the man of "the Journal," could, by a touch of his magical wand, convert them into exhibitions of patriotism, charity, and benevolence, no doubt imagined in their blindness that to torment me for daring to speak what I knew, would be noble and magnanimous

These are the facts, and what is the just lnfinence? It is as follows: "If you dare to speak against ns, or to expose our corruption, we will hunt you down like a wild beast." Freedom of speech, and freedom of the press, are doctrines taught and practiced by the old fogies of an age cone by. Proscription and intolerence towards all who oppose them is their watch-word, and woe betide the unlucky man who falls under their displeasure. Any man not 2 member of that party who will vote for one of them, deserves the eternal execration of the party which he belongs, and we know he will not fail to The Democrat who votes for a Know-Nothing for any office at the coming elections, ought to and will have a mark set on him as indelible as that upon Cain, and will find himself C. One of the electors, Mr. John Wash, has resided in this Legislature and was defeated on every turn, when he found that he could not get to Frankpolitical parties, and would vote on both sides occasionally. He supported C. M. Clay in 1851, he was the Hale elector in 1852. In 1855 he divided his vote between the Democrats and Know Nothings; denied being a Know Nothing without being accused of belonging to the Order. Several persons who belonged to the Camdonsville Conncil, says that he was a member of that Conneil during its short existence on this earth. There is no doubt but he is one of the disciples of Sam. In the 69th year of his age he attained a license to practice law, having been a magis-trate under the old constitution. Testimony of Mr. Michael Dunn, Superintendent of the Philades, his Exhang., cor oborative of the efficacy of Willams's Anti-Dyspeptic Eliair.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1833.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past. I nave been liable to attacks of Dyspepsis, but never have I been more attressingly afflicted with its symptoms, in on within the last few weeks. Indigestion, never usus gridability, deepondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and revere pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortusately, I was recommended by a lirend totry your Edixt. I did so, and in less than two weeks, lindigestion coased, pain and nor-yous depression left, and have been almost mirror according to the properties, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To methe cure seemed almost mirror according and my object in writing to you see a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail the meselves of your efficient remedy.
